

Award Nominations:

The Awards Committee is requesting nominations for the following awards:

Competitive Awards

David Ser Memorial Kinesiotherapy Award: Most prestigious competitive award given and presented for outstanding contributions in the field of Kinesiotherapy. Material is not limited to current year, but may be cumulative. Include statements under the following headings:

- Clinical Program
- Research
- Advancement of Kinesiotherapy
- Awards

John Eisele Davis Memorial Award: A competitive award given for outstanding service in the field of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Service. Nominees should be outside the Kinesiotherapy Profession. List information under the following headings:

- Leadership
- Research and Clinical Practice
- Devotion to the Field
- Publications
- Other Material

Achievement Award: Competitive award presented to the candidate who has shown exemplary accomplishment in his/her own rehabilitation and thus given as an inspiration to others. Include statements under the following headings:

- Nature, cause, and circumstance surrounding the incident of disability
- Obstacles overcome
- Accomplishments since onset
- Inspirational value- effect on others

Warren C. Smith Award: Competitive award presented to an individual who has devoted a number of years to the National AKTA in leadership positions held, implied, and self assumed to improve the AKTA and the profession. The individual acts of service resulting in a clearly identifiable and recognizable superior dedication to the profession.

Non-Competitive Awards

Ernst Jokl Fellow Award: Presented to the active AKTA member who has made outstanding scholarly achievements in the field of rehabilitation. Include statements under the following headings:

- Contributions
- Effect on the field
- Scope of project or work
- Academic credentials
- Publications
- Speaker at conferences, seminars, and/or workshops
- Teacher/professor
- Other comments

Julian Vogel Memorial Life Membership Award: Presented to any active member who has demonstrated unusual interest and meritorious service in the Association and who is retired or will retire imminently. Include statements under the following headings:

- Interest
- Meritorious service

Carl Haven Young Service Award: Presented to individuals outside of the profession who have demonstrated unusual interest and meritorious service in the field of Kinesiotherapy or rehabilitation medicine. Include statements under the following headings:

- Unusual interest
- Meritorious service
- Publications

As a member of the AKTA, you have the opportunity to submit nominations along with supporting material by mail or by using e-mail. The Nominating Committee must receive nominations and supporting material no later than October 31, 2008. Please mail nominations to:

Lori Stuart
4195 Drew Ridge Drive
Louisa, Virginia 23093
(804) 675-5821
e-mail: Lori.Stuart@va.gov